

The sanctuary seats 632 for a wedding, concert, or large event. Two tiers of rich plum-colored seating face each other across the sanctuary, creating an intimate, in-the-round configuration. The sanctuary features outstanding acoustics, a visually arresting Aron Kodesh (holy ark) of handmade bronze doors, wood elements, muted yellow concrete walls, and 1,000 square feet of skylights, flooding the space with natural light.

Koret Hall is ideal for large parties, wedding receptions, and lectures. This elegant space accommodates 240 people for a seated banquet and 410 for a lecture. With 16-foot ceilings and large vertical windows, the room is softened with floor-to-ceiling champagne colored drapes and white oak flooring. Koret Hall is hard wired for audiovisual displays, including a large screen projector and 9-foot by 16-foot screen, cable input, remote computer display capability, audio amplification system, iPod/MP3 input, wireless ethernet, and an assistive listening system.

Beth Sholom's intimate Gronowski Family Chapel is a calm space perfectly suited for life-cycle events, small weddings, and religious ceremonies. The Board Room and Main Meeting Room offer large, flexible spaces that accommodate up to 100 people for business functions and lectures, or meals for groups of 70. Both rooms are high-tech equipped with wireless ethernet, audiovisual and remote computer display capabilities, polycom conference phones, and more.

Our ultra-modern kosher catering kitchen is outfitted with separate dairy and meat preparation stations, washing areas, pantries, two ovens, and refrigeration equipment. Choose from our preferred list of professional and delicious kosher caterers.

The ground floor entry to the building features a dramatic stairway and the Rainbow Courtyard, a central outdoor gathering space. This inviting and informal location is perfectly suited for a pre-event reception or gathering. At the top of the grand staircase is the Eva Gunther Plaza, connecting the sanctuary and the primary reception space, Koret Hall. With 4,500 square feet of space open to the sky, it's an exceptional place to gather following a wedding or Bar/Bat Mitzvah. The doors of Koret Hall open to the plaza, allowing it to be incorporated into events, either tented or open air.
